Dear Parents/Carers,

As we come to the end of our first half term of this academic year it has been nice to see how much progress the children have been making with their learning. Much of this is celebrated in our celebration assemblies and in the blogs that we share with you each week.

We have been able to make a lot of progress with carefully mixing some year groups in assemblies although we are still taking precautions in order to keep everyone safe. I would like to thank you for your cooperation with this.

The children have also been enjoying their playtimes and lunchtimes as we have got new systems in place which maximises the amount of time that they can be active.

We are excited and hopeful that the next half term we will be able to build on these achievements and continue to move forward safely.

Our stars of this week are celebrated in the post below

Well done to all of these children- it is lovely we can celebrate these achievements again in assembly.

Those who have received headteacher affirmations this week can be found below:

This week we have a blog written by Miss Sandhu telling you all about spectacular Science at Central:

I hope that you all have a lovely half term holiday and the staff and I look forward to seeing you on Monday 1st November.

Best wishes,

Katie Bentham
